A Presidential Advisory Committee is established to create a Centre for Industrial Relations.

John Crispo is named founding director.

Jean Newman establishes the Library and Information Service with support from the Personnel Association of Toronto.

The MIR is created based on a proposal by Morley Gunderson. Lorna Marsden is the first Graduate Coordinator.

Anil Verma organizes an International Conference on Union Growth in honour of Noah Meltz.

The Centre relocates from 123 to 121 St. George Street.

A donation of $1000,000 establishes the CIBC Chair in Youth Employment.

The undergraduate programs are transferred from Woodsworth College to the CIRHR.

The Centre relocates from 123 to 121 St. George Street.

The CIRHR moves from the School of Graduate Studies to the Faculty of Arts and Science.

The administrative home of the CIRHR moves from the School of Graduate Studies to the Faculty of Arts and Science.